PARTICIPANT RULES

- All competitors must be sworn, full-time or retired law enforcement officers in the state of Kentucky. There will be a separate competition for DOCJT employees.
- All DOCJT Range Safety Rules will be followed by all competitors during the competition.
- DOCJT Firearms staff reserves the right to disallow any weapon or item of leather gear for this competition. Weapons, holster, belt and belt gear must be those normally carried on duty.
- Weapons information: actions must conform to factory specifications; sights must be those normally installed by the manufacturer—after market sights will be allowed only if they are duty sights; sight blackening will not be allowed. The barrel must be the barrel normally installed by the manufacturer--ported or compensated barrels will not be allowed. Barrels longer than 5 inches will not be allowed.
- All weapons and leather gear will be inspected by the DOCJT Firearms staff at check-in. The DOCJT Firearms staff reserves the right to disallow any weapon or item of leather gear for this competition.
- All shooters must register as an individual competitor to be eligible to compete as a team member or compete in the Combat Course.
- A tie-breaking course will be announced if necessary. No more than 20 rounds will be fired for the tie-breaker.
- NO alcoholic beverages will be permitted.

All decisions made by the DOCJT Firearms staff will be final

Additional information:

- Bring your own eye and ear protection.
- Bring 100 rounds of duty ammunition for the target course. The Combat Course will be fired with the duty weapon and consists of 6 rounds. If you plan to shoot the Combat Course more than once, bring the appropriate number of rounds.
- Thompson Residence Hall dorm rooms are available free of charge for FR, 10-06 for pre-registered participants who indicate the request on the registration form. Deadline to pre-register in order to request a dorm room is September 22.

COMPETITIONS

Awards based on Lewis Scoring System.

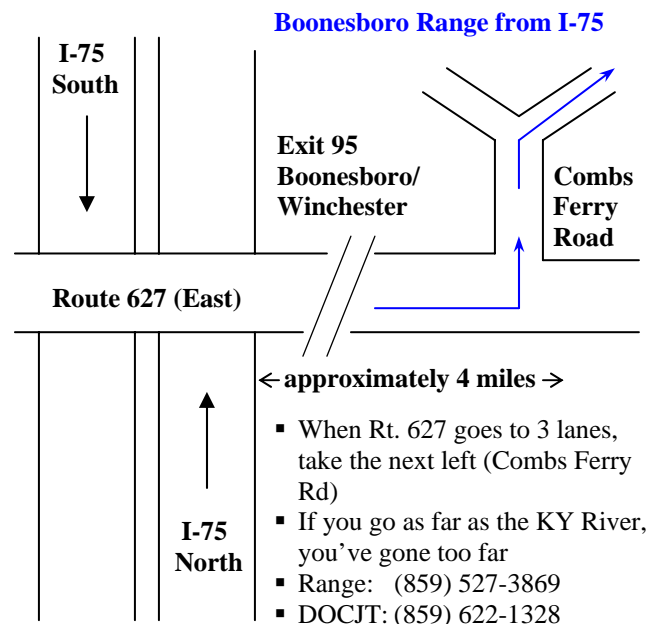

Individual—After an individual completes the course of fire, that score will be used in both their Individual and Team scores (if applicable). No re-shoots will be allowed.

Team—Combined score from each member. There is no limit on the number of teams an agency may enter. The winning team will be awarded a trophy for each officer. In addition, a Championship Cup will be awarded to the winning team for display at their agency for 1 year. Second and third place teams will be awarded a trophy for each officer.

Combat—Shooters will be electronically timed. The 3 shooters who qualify with the lowest times will be awarded trophies. There is no limit on the number of times this course may be shot. The Combat Course will be announced the day of the match. It will be a revolver-neutral, 6-round course. Registration fee entitles each shooter to fire the Combat Course once. Each additional try costs $5.

Retired—Retired Class will be Honorably, Retired Sworn Officers from a Law Enforcement Agency in the State of Kentucky.

DOCJT Staff—DOCJT employees will be competing, as a separate category.
